SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

2002 RECYCLED WATER TASK FORCE FIFTH MEETING

In Conjunction with ACWA's Fall Conference
Tuesday, November 19, 2002, 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
South Ballroom B, Disneyland Hotel
1150 Magic Way, Anaheim, CA 92802

Background

The 2002 Recycled Water Task Force was established by Assembly Bill 331(Goldberg), passed by the Legislature and approved by Governor Davis on October 7, 2001 (Water Code Section 13578). The Task Force is a cooperative effort of the California Department of Water Resources, the State Water Resources Control Board, and the Department of Health Services. State Water Board Member Richard Katz is the Task Force Chair. The Task Force is charged with evaluating the current framework of State and local rules, regulations, ordinances, and permits to identify the opportunities, obstacles or disincentives to maximizing the safe use of recycled water. The recommendations of the Task Force must be reported to the Legislature by July 1, 2003.
